SCHEDULE B – TRANSACTIONS

Name: Harold Dallas Rogers

Report any purchase, sale, or exchange transactions that exceeded $1,000 in the reporting period of any security or real property held by you, your spouse, or your dependent child for investment or the production of income. Include transactions that resulted in a capital loss. Provide a brief description of an exchange transaction. Exclude transactions between you, your spouse, or dependent children, or the purchase or sale of your personal residence, unless it generated rental income. If only a portion of an asset is sold, please choose 'partial sale' as the type of transaction.

Capital Gains: If a sales transaction resulted in a capital gain in excess of $200, check the 'capital gains' box, unless it was an asset in a tax-deferred account, and disclose the capital gain income on Schedule A.

* Column K is for assets solely held by your spouse or dependent child.

SP, DC, JT	Asset	Type of Transaction		Date	Amount of Transaction

Three Steps to Consider Before April 15

April 15 is right around the corner. Here are three things to consider before the tax deadline arrives. 1. Get organized - Many people underestimate the time it takes to organize their tax records. 2. Make your 2013 IRA contribution - Use this tax-advantaged saving opportunity to contribute $5,500 to your IRA. 3. Consider filing electronically - If you expect a tax refund, filing electronically can mean getting your refund three to six weeks earlier than filing by mail.

What Are You Doing on 5/29?

It can be easy to put off saving for future needs such as a child's education. With a nod to 529 college savings plans, we're celebrating May 29 as "Save for Education Day," a day to get serious about achieving your education savings goals. You want the best for your child; call for your appointment today. Investments in a 529 plan will fluctuate in value with changes in market conditions and when sold may be worth more or less than the original investment.

It's Your Day, Dads

If you're a father, you've worked hard to make a good life for your family. Make the most of this Father's Day by identifying key risks that could derail your hard work. This is also a good time to discuss the legacy you'd like to leave your loved ones. Already have a strategy in place? Make sure it's current and still supports your plans. Your financial advisor can help. Give him or her a call.

E. Rev L..Grandparents Day

Grandparents Day, Sept. 7, is an ideal time to think of ways to leave the legacy you desire for your grandchildren. This includes protecting your own financial independence and working with legal and tax professionals to create a comprehensive estate plan. Grandparents Day will quickly pass, but your efforts to provide for your grandchildren will be felt for years to come. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors are not estate planners and cannot provide tax or legal advice.

Preparing for Market Volatility

Watching minute-by-minute moves in the stock market is a recipe for increased anxiety. To stay focused, remember why you're invested. Review your long-term financial goals and strategy on a regular basis. If they haven't changed, you may not need to do anything to prepare for higher volatility in the stock market. Finally, remember that your financial advisor is here to help regardless of what the market is doing. If you have questions, don't hesitate to call.

Important Information Regarding Your Form 1099-B: We will report cost basis for "covered" shares to the IRS. We will not report cost basis for "noncovered" shares to the IRS. The IRS may require you to report the cost basis data and gain/loss items from your Form 1099-B onto Form 1040, Schedule D and Form 8949 (Sales and Other Dispositions of Capital Assets), as indicated on Form 1099-B. See the instructions for Form 1040, Schedule D, and Form 8949 for complete details on how to report this information on your tax return.

The average cost method is used as our default method to calculate cost basis for domestic open-end mutual funds. The FIFO (first-in, first-out) lot relief method is used for all securities unless otherwise indicated at the time of sale. If you have used any other cost basis calculation or lot relief methods for noncovered security transactions, do not rely on these figures. Also, we are required to calculate and report amortization and accretion adjustments for covered taxable bonds using "debt" methods specified by IRS regulations. We do not make cost basis adjustments for discounts or premiums on non-covered taxable bonds. We do make adjustments on non-covered tax-exempt bonds purchased at a premium as specified by IRS regulations. The cost basis information for noncovered securities transactions is believed to be reliable, but its accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed. Therefore, this information should not be relied upon for tax preparation without independent verification by your qualified tax advisor. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors cannot provide tax or legal advice.

LT indicates a long-term gain/(loss), ST indicates a short-term gain/(loss), and Unknown indicates that we did not have enough information to determine the cost basis and/or holding period.

This is not a Form 1099. The supplemental information below may contain foreign source income or state exclusions. You may be able to claim as a deduction on your tax return a portion of your foreign tax paid. If you have state exclusions that report the amount of income derived from federal, municipal and U.S. territory obligations, a portion of this amount may be excludable from state taxable income based upon the state's law. The information includes the state of issuance of the municipal bond or the state from which income is derived. This state is presumed to be your state of residency. Consult your tax professional as to how this information may impact your tax return.

Spend Your Summer Wisely

Don't let longer days, warmer weather and family trips tempt you into temporarily abandoning your long-term goals. Consider setting up a systematic investing program, which allows you to invest a set dollar amount each month. Systematic investing does not guarantee a profit or protect against loss. Investors should consider their willingness to invest when share prices are declining. Contact your Edward Jones financial advisor to learn more about systematic investing.

Health Care and Your Retirement

Advances in health care are improving quality of life and extending life expectancies. But longer life expectancies may lead to increased retirement expenses. To gain a better understanding of how advances in health care may impact your retirement, read our strategy report "Health Care and Your Retirement" at www.edwardjones.com/healthcareretirement and contact your financial advisor for help in developing a strategy to cover these expenses.

Move Your Family Forward

The approach of fall brings familiar cycles, but life is full of surprises. You can't predict the future, but you can prepare for it. The first step is to meet with your financial advisor to review your financial strategy and priorities to make sure they're still in sync and you're still on track. And with the end of the year a few months away, there may be some unique investment opportunities to help move your family forward toward your financial goals. Call your financial advisor today for an appointment.

Important Information Regarding Your Form 1099-B: We will report cost basis for "covered" shares to the IRS. We will not report cost basis for "noncovered" shares to the IRS. The IRS may require you to report the cost basis data and gain/loss items from your Form 1099-B onto Form 1040, Schedule D and Form 8949 (Sales and Other Dispositions of Capital Assets), as indicated on Form 1099-B. See the Instructions for Form 1040, Schedule D, and Form 8949 for complete details on how to report this information on your tax return.

The average cost method is used as our default method to calculate cost basis for domestic open-end mutual funds. The FIFO (first-in, first-out) lot relief method is used for all securities unless otherwise indicated at the time of sale. If you have used any other cost basis calculation or lot relief methods for noncovered security transactions, do not rely on these figures. Also, we are required to calculate and report amortization and accretion adjustments for covered taxable bonds using "default" methods specified by IRS regulations. We do not make cost basis adjustments for discounts or premiums on non-covered taxable bonds. We do make adjustments on non-covered tax-exempt bonds purchased at a premium as specified by IRS regulations. The cost basis information for noncovered securities transactions is believed to be reliable, but its accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed. Therefore, this information should not be relied upon for tax preparation without independent verification by your qualified tax advisor. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors cannot provide tax or legal advice.

LT indicates a long-term gain/(loss), ST indicates a short-term gain/(loss), and Unknown indicates that we did not have enough information to determine the cost basis and/or holding period.

Think of Yourself This Mother's Day

For women, Mother's Day is an ideal reminder of the importance of taking care of themselves and their future. Your financial advisor can meet with you to discuss your family's current situation and your short- and long-term goals. He or she can then work with you to help set specific, realistic and measurable goals designed to help you get where you want to be.

Put Your Tax Refund to Work

Are you expecting a tax refund, or did you recently receive one? If you don't have specific plans for this money, consider putting it to work for you by investing it for your retirement, saving for college or using it to pay down debt. Investing even a small amount today can make a substantial difference in meeting your long-term financial goals. Your Edward Jones financial advisor can explain what options are available to you.

Need a Helping Hand?

Do you have questions regarding your client statement? Do you need help completing some Edward Jones paperwork? If so, just call your local branch office administrator. He or she can help you with a variety of tasks, including answering questions about dividends and stock certificates; updating the name, address or telephone number associated with your account; providing market quotes; handling deposits and check requests; and answering non-investment questions. So keep his or her name and phone number handy.

Back to School

For many students, August means the start of a new school year. For parents, it means their children are one year closer to starting college. Now is the time to start saving, and Edward Jones can help. Your financial advisor can show you approximately how much money your child or grandchild will need to attend college and then help you develop a savings strategy and determine which option is most suitable for helping you work toward achieving your education savings goal.

Giving Thanks

As Thanksgiving approaches, we pause to reflect on all for which we are grateful. We want you to know how much we appreciate the confidence you have placed in Edward Jones. We are grateful for your business, and we value the relationship we have built with you. We'd also like to thank all our veterans, whose personal sacrifices have helped to secure the freedoms we hold so dear. Happy Veterans Day, and best wishes for a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Important Information Regarding Your Form 1099-B: We will report cost basis for "covered" shares to the IRS. We will not report cost basis for "noncovered" shares to the IRS. The IRS may require you to report the cost basis data and gain/loss items from your Form 1099-B onto Form 1040, Schedule D and Form 8949 (Sales and Other Dispositions of Capital Assets), as indicated on Form 1099-B. See the Instructions for Form 1040, Schedule D, and Form 8949 for complete details on how to report this information on your tax return.

The average cost method is used as our default method to calculate cost basis for domestic open-end mutual funds. The FIFO (first-in, first-out) lot relief method is used for all securities unless otherwise indicated at the time of sale. If you have used any other cost basis calculation or lot relief methods for noncovered security transactions, do not rely on these figures. Also, we are required to calculate and report amortization and accretion adjustments for covered taxable bonds using "default" methods specified by IRS regulations. We do not make cost basis adjustments for discounts or premiums on non-covered taxable bonds. We do make adjustments on non-covered tax-exempt bonds purchased at a premium as specified by IRS regulations. The cost basis information for noncovered securities transactions is believed to be reliable, but its accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed. Therefore, this information should not be relied upon for tax preparation without independent verification by your qualified tax advisor. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors cannot provide tax or legal advice.

LT indicates a long-term gain/(loss), ST indicates a short-term gain/(loss), and Unknown indicates that we did not have enough information to determine the cost basis and/or holding period.

This is not a Form 1099. The supplemental information below may contain foreign source income or state exclusions. You may be able to claim as a deduction on your tax return a portion of your foreign tax paid. If you have state exclusions that report the amount of income derived from federal, municipal and U.S. territory obligations, a portion of this amount may be excludable from state taxable income based upon the state's law. The information includes the state of issuance of the municipal bond or the state from which income is derived. This state is presumed to be your state of residency. Consult your tax professional as to how this information may impact your tax return.

Preparing for Rising Interest Rates

We believe bonds provide diversification to help reduce risk during volatile markets and are an important part of a well-diversified portfolio. But if interest rates rise, as many experts are preparing for, how will the value of your bonds be affected? Now is an ideal time to meet with your Edward Jones financial advisor to ensure your portfolio is properly positioned for the possibility of higher interest rates.

Don't Let Identity Theft Spoil Your Vacation

Thieves don't take vacations from crime, so as you prepare for your summer getaway, consider stopping your mail and newspaper delivery. Don't post your itinerary on social media. While traveling, carry only the credit cards you'll need, and leave your checkbook and Social Security number at home. Safeguard tickets, itineraries and other travel documents that list personal information. To learn more, visit www.edwardjones.com/fraud.

Declare Your Financial Independence

This Independence Day, as we celebrate our nation's freedom, declare your own financial freedom. Begin by spending less and saving and investing more. Even a small amount invested regularly can make a difference in your long-term future. Next, take a look at your lifestyle. Be ruthless when it comes to breaking bad spending habits and paying down debt. Honing smart spending and saving habits and reviewing your portfolio regularly can help you on your way to celebrating your own financial freedom.

Is Inflation Rising?

For long-term investors, inflation is a key risk, but there are ways to help protect your portfolio. Investments that offer the potential for rising income can help offset rising expenses. Contact your financial advisor to discuss suitable options. To learn more about the outlook for inflation, visit www.edwardjones.com/inflation. Investing involves risks. The value will fluctuate, so you may lose principal. Dividends can be increased, decreased or eliminated at any point without notice.

Have You Taken Your RMD?

IRS regulations require clients age 70-1/2 and older to withdraw a minimum amount from their retirement accounts each year. This amount is known as a required minimum distribution or RMD. If you turn 70-1/2 in 2014, you may make a withdrawal by Dec. 31, 2014, or defer your withdrawal until April 1, 2015. In either case, Edward Jones must report your RMD information to the IRS. Contact your financial advisor if you have questions.

Build Wealth Systematically

Dollar cost averaging helps you build wealth systematically. By investing a fixed amount each month, you buy more shares when the stock price is lower and fewer shares when it's higher. Contact your financial advisor to learn more. Systematic investing does not guarantee a profit or protect against loss. Dollar cost averaging is a long-term investment strategy that involves continual investment regardless of fluctuating price levels, so consider your ability to continue purchases in periods of low price levels.

Staying On Track in 2015

As we begin 2015, take a moment to look at where you've been and where you're headed, especially with your financial goals. Whether you're recently retired, nearing retirement or still working toward retirement, the new year offers a great opportunity to get on track, if necessary, and then stay on track. Your financial advisor can help you develop a written strategy, tailored for you, that shows if you're on track to reach your financial goals. Give him or her a call.

Is Your Beneficiary Information Accurate?

When was the last time you reviewed the beneficiaries on your accounts? If it's been awhile, Valentine's Day may serve as a good reminder to do so. Making sure your beneficiary information is accurate and up-to-date - and that you've named both primary and contingent beneficiaries - will help ensure your assets are distributed in the manner you want and to those who matter most to you. Your local Edward Jones office can help you with this process.

Looking for Help with Your Tax Bill?

Rather than having to liquidate investments or deplete savings, the Edward Jones Personal Line of Credit allows you to borrow up to 50% of the value of eligible investments within qualified accounts. The Personal Line of Credit, a margin loan, does have risks and is not suitable for everyone. If the value of your collateral declines, you may be required to deposit cash or additional securities, or securities may be sold to meet the margin call. Interest accrues from the date of the loan and will be charged to your account. Call for details.

Happy Independence Day

Amid the backyard barbecues and firework displays this Fourth of July holiday, we hope you'll pause to reflect on our great nation. After nearly 240 years, the United States remains a symbol of freedom throughout the world. We salute all those who fought for this freedom and those who continue to serve in the U.S. Armed Forces. Happy Independence Day!

The Gift That Keeps Giving

With the holidays approaching, you may want to consider gifting an investment - such as a stock or bond - to a family member or civic, religious or educational institution. Such a gift can benefit you as the donor, as well as the recipient. For more information regarding charitable gifts, contact your financial advisor. (Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors cannot provide tax or legal advice. You should consult your attorney or qualified tax advisor regarding your situation.)

2014 Required Minimum Distribution

Those age 70-1/2 and older must withdraw a minimum amount from their retirement accounts each year. If you reached age 70-1/2 in 2014, you must make this withdrawal by Dec. 31 or defer that withdrawal until April 1, 2015. In either case, Edward Jones must report the RMD to the IRS. Contact your financial advisor for more information. If you help care for someone who has reached age 70-1/2, please remind him or her of this important information, as penalties apply if the proper distribution is not taken.

Important Information Regarding Your Form 1099-B: We will report cost basis for "covered" shares to the IRS. We will not report cost basis for "noncovered" shares to the IRS. The IRS may require you to report the cost basis data and gain/loss items from your Form 1099-B onto Form 1040, Schedule D and Form 8949 (Sales and Other Dispositions of Capital Assets), as indicated on Form 1099-B. See the instructions for Form 1040, Schedule D, and Form 8949 for complete details on how to report this information on your tax return.

The average cost method is used as our default method to calculate cost basis for domestic open-end mutual funds. The FIFO (first-in, first-out) lot relief method is used for all securities unless otherwise indicated at the time of sale. If you have used any other cost basis calculation or lot relief methods for noncovered security transactions, do not rely on these figures. Also, we are required to calculate and report amortization and accretion adjustments for covered taxable bonds using "default" methods specified by IRS regulations. We do not make cost basis adjustments for discounts or premiums on non-covered taxable bonds. We do make adjustments on non-covered tax-exempt bonds purchased at a premium as specified by IRS regulations. The cost basis information for noncovered securities transactions is believed to be reliable, but its accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed. Therefore, this information should not be relied upon for tax preparation without independent verification by your qualified tax advisor. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors cannot provide tax or legal advice.

LT indicates a long-term gain/(loss), ST indicates a short-term gain/(loss), and Unknown indicates that we did not have enough information to determine the cost basis and/or holding period.

Federal Tax Considerations

The information in this summary is presented in two sections as follows:

Covered Fixed-Income Holdings

Brokers are required to calculate and report amortization and accretion adjustments for covered debt instruments acquired on or after January 1, 2014, using "default" methods specified in IRS regulations, unless notified by you in writing to use "elected" methods. The "default" methods and the "elected" methods for covered bonds are described below.

Market Discount Accretion - The default method is to accrue market discount on covered taxable and tax-exempt bonds using the straight line method. Under the default method, market discount is accrued but not added to the cost basis of the bond. However, in the year of sale, call or maturity, the life-to-date market discount accretion on covered taxable and tax-exempt bonds is reported to the IRS by Edward Jones on Form 1099-B.

There are two elected methods available for market discount accretion on covered taxable and tax-exempt bonds. The first elected method is to accrue market discount on covered taxable and tax-exempt bonds using the constant yield method. If so elected, market discount is accrued but not added to the cost basis of the bond. Under the second elected method, current inclusion, market discount is accrued, added to the cost basis of the bond and reported to the IRS on Form 1099-INT or 1099-QID.

Bond Premium Amortization - The default method is to amortize bond premium on covered taxable and tax-exempt bonds using the constant yield method. Under the default method, bond premium amortization reduces the cost basis of the bond and is reported to the IRS by Edward Jones on the Form 1099-INT.

The elected method is to not amortize bond premium on covered taxable bonds. If so elected, bond premium on covered taxable bonds is not amortized by Edward Jones and the cost basis is not reduced. This election to not amortize bond premium does not apply to covered tax-exempt bonds.

Acquisition Premium Amortization - The default method is to amortize acquisition premium on covered taxable and tax-exempt bonds using the fixed percentage method. Under the default method acquisition premium amortization reduces the cost basis of the bond and is reported to the IRS by Edward Jones on Form 1099-QID. There is no elected method for acquisition premium amortization.

Election to Treat All Interest as OID - This elected method allows taxpayers to use the constant yield method to determine the amount of taxable income that may accrue on covered taxable bonds.

Fixed-Income Supplement Explanations

Noncovered Fixed-Income Holdings

Brokers are required to calculate amortization and accretion adjustments for noncovered bonds using methods specified in IRS regulations. Edward Jones is not allowed to use any elected methods for noncovered bonds. Please consult your tax advisor regarding the available elected methods for noncovered bonds you hold.

Market Discount Accretion - Market discount is required to be accrued on noncovered taxable and tax-exempt bonds using the straight line method. Market discount on noncovered taxable and tax-exempt bonds is accrued but not added to the cost basis of the bond. However, in the year of sale, call or maturity, the life-to-date market discount accretion on noncovered taxable and tax-exempt bonds may affect the cost basis of the bond.

Bond Premium Amortization - Bond premium is not required to be amortized on noncovered taxable bonds. Edward Jones calculates bond premium amortization on noncovered taxable bonds using the constant yield method and discloses the amounts in this report. However, the cost basis of the bond is not reduced by the bond premium amortization for purposes of reporting its sale, call or maturity on Form 1099-B.

Bond premium is required to be amortized on noncovered tax-exempt bonds. Edward Jones calculates bond premium amortization on noncovered tax-exempt bonds using the constant yield method and discloses the amounts in this report. Bond premium amortization on noncovered tax-exempt bonds reduces the cost basis of the bond for purposes of reporting its sale, call or maturity on Form 1099-B.

Acquisition Premium Amortization - Acquisition premium is required to be amortized on noncovered taxable bonds. Edward Jones calculates acquisition premium amortization on noncovered taxable bonds using the fixed percentage method and discloses the amounts in this report. Acquisition premium amortization on noncovered taxable bonds reduces the cost basis of the bond for purposes of reporting its sale, call or maturity on Form 1099-B.

Acquisition premium is required to be amortized on noncovered tax-exempt bonds. Edward Jones calculates acquisition premium amortization on noncovered tax-exempt bonds using the fixed percentage method and discloses the amounts in this report. Acquisition premium amortization on noncovered tax-exempt bonds reduces the cost basis of the bond for purposes of reporting its sale, call or maturity on Form 1099-B.

This is not a Form 1099. The supplemental information below may contain foreign source income or state exclusions. You may be able to claim as a deduction on your tax return a portion of your foreign tax paid. If you have state exclusions that report the amount of income derived from federal, municipal and U.S. territory obligations, a portion of this amount may be excludable from state taxable income based upon the state's law. The information includes the state of issuance of the municipal bond or the state from which income is derived. This state is presumed to be your state of residency. Consult your tax professional as to how this information may impact your tax return.

Put Your Tax Refund to Work

Are you expecting a tax refund, or did you recently receive one? If you don't have specific plans for this money, consider putting it to work for you by investing it for your retirement, saving for college or using it to pay down debt. Investing even a small amount today can make a substantial difference in meeting your long-term financial goals. Your Edward Jones financial advisor can explain what options are available to you.

Spend Your Summer Wisely

Don't let longer days, warmer weather and family trips tempt you into temporarily abandoning your long-term goals. Consider setting up a systematic investing program, which allows you to invest a set dollar amount each month. Systematic investing does not guarantee a profit or protect against loss. Investors should consider their willingness to keep investing when share prices are declining. Contact your Edward Jones financial advisor to learn more about systematic investing.

Health Care and Your Retirement

Advances in health care are improving quality of life and extending life expectancies. But longer life expectancies may lead to increased retirement expenses. To gain a better understanding of how advances in health care may impact your retirement, read our strategy report "Health Care and Your Retirement" at www.edwardjones.com/healthcareretirement and contact your financial advisor for help in developing a strategy to cover these expenses.

Move Your Family Forward

The approach of fall brings familiar cycles, but life is full of surprises. You can't predict the future, but you can prepare for it. The first step is to meet with your financial advisor to review your financial strategy and priorities to make sure they're still in sync and you're still on track. And with the end of the year a few months away, there may be some unique investment opportunities to help move your family forward toward your financial goals. Call your financial advisor today for an appointment.

Important Information Regarding Your Form 1099-B: We will report cost basis for "covered" shares to the IRS. We will not report cost basis for "noncovered" shares to the IRS. The IRS may require you to report the cost basis data and gain/(loss) items from your Form 1099-B onto Form 1040, Schedule D and Form 8949 (Sales and Other Dispositions of Capital Assets), as indicated on Form 1099-B. See the Instructions for Form 1040, Schedule D, and Form 8949 for complete details on how to report this information on your tax return.

The average cost method is used as our default method to calculate cost basis for domestic open-end mutual funds. The FIFO (first-in, first-out) lot relief method is used for all securities unless otherwise indicated at the time of sale. If you have used any other cost basis calculation or lot relief methods for noncovered security transactions, do not rely on these figures. Also, we are required to calculate and report amortization and accretion adjustments for covered taxable bonds using "default" metric(s) specified by IRS regulations. We do not make cost basis adjustments for discounts or premiums on non-covered taxable bonds. We do make adjustments on non-covered tax-exempt bonds purchased at a premium as specified by IRS regulations. The cost basis information for noncovered securities transactions is believed to be reliable, but its accuracy and completeness are not guaranteed. Therefore, this information should not be relied upon for tax preparation without independent verification by your qualified tax advisor. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors cannot provide tax or legal advice.

LT indicates a long-term gain/(loss), ST indicates a short-term gain/(loss), and Unknown indicates that we did not have enough information to determine the cost basis and/or holding period.

This is not a Form 1099. The supplemental information below may contain foreign source income or state exclusions. You may be able to claim as a deduction on your tax return a portion of your foreign tax paid. If you have state exclusions that report the amount of income derived from federal, municipal and U.S. territory obligations, a portion of this amount may be excludable from state taxable income based upon the state's law. The information includes the state of issuance of the municipal bond or the state from which income is derived. This state is presumed to be your state of residency. Consult your tax professional as to how this information may impact your tax return.

Three Steps to Consider Before April 15

April 15 is right around the corner. Here are three things to consider before the tax deadline arrives. 1. Get organized - Many people underestimate the time it takes to organize their tax records. 2. Make your 2013 IRA contribution - Use this tax-advantaged saving opportunity to contribute $5,500 to your IRA. 3. Consider filing electronically - If you expect a tax refund, filing electronically can mean getting your refund three to six weeks earlier than filing by mail.

Grandparents Day

Grandparents Day, Sept. 7, is an ideal time to think of ways to leave the legacy you desire for your grandchildren. This includes protecting your own financial independence and working with legal and tax professionals to create a comprehensive estate plan. Grandparents Day will quickly pass, but your efforts to provide for your grandchildren will be felt for years to come. Edward Jones, its employees and financial advisors are not estate planners and cannot provide tax or legal advice.

Preparing for Market Volatility

Watching minute-by-minute moves in the stock market is a recipe for increased anxiety. To stay focused, remember why you're invested. Review your long-term financial goals and strategy on a regular basis. If they haven't changed, you may not need to do anything to prepare for higher volatility in the stock market. Finally, remember that your financial advisor is here to help regardless of what the market is doing. If you have questions, don't hesitate to call.
